The Fund may choose not to purchase, or may sell, otherwise profitable investments in companies which have been identified as being in conflict with its established social-witness principles. This means that the Fund may underperform other similar mutual funds that do not consider social-witness principles in their investing.

The following risks may apply to the underlying investments:

- › International: International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations.
- › Small Cap: Narrowly focused investments and smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility.
- › Emerging Markets: Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume.
- › Bonds: Bonds and bond funds are subject to interest rate risk and will decline in value as interest rates rise.
- › High Yield Bonds: High-yield securities may be more volatile, be subject to greater levels of credit or default risk and may be less liquid and more difficult to sell at an advantageous time or price to value than higher-rated securities of similar maturity.

Index Definitions:

The Bloomberg Intermediate Aggregate U.S. Bond Index is an unmanaged index generally representative of intermediate investment grade government and corporate debt securities with maturities of 10 years or less.

The Russell 3000 Index measures the performance of the largest 3000 U.S. companies representing approximately 98% of the investable U.S. equity market.

For those New Covenant Funds which employ the 'manager of managers' structure, SEI Investments Management Corporation (SIMC) has ultimate responsibility for the investment performance of the Funds due to its responsibility to oversee the sub-advisers and recommend their hiring, termination and replacement. SIMC is the adviser to the New Covenant Funds, which are distributed by SEI Investments Distribution Co. (SIDCO) SIMC and SIDCO are wholly owned subsidiaries of SEI Investments Company (SEI).
